

William Penn (and Mrs. Penn) return to New Castle, Del. on Oct. 24, 2015

(DOVER, Del.—Oct. 15, 2015)—On Saturday, Oct. 24, 2015, history will be vividly brought to life in New Castle, Del., during “William Penn Day,” a day-long series of activities commemorating the 333rd anniversary of Penn’s Oct. 27, 1682 disembarkment at New Castle, his first landing in the New World. All programs are free and will take place at the New Castle Court House Museum, located at 211 Delaware St. in New Castle, Del. For additional information, call 302-323-4453.

Cast of “The Tryal of William Penn.”

“William Penn Day” will feature the following activities:

– Livery of Seizen ceremony. Historical interpreters Bob Vander Decker, David Price and New Castle resident Jim Whisman re-enact the ceremony in which the town of New Castle, and a 12-mile circle of land surrounding it, were conveyed to William Penn by appointed representatives of the Duke of York. Penn will then present his plans for his new three “Lower Counties.” 10:15 a.m.

- Performance by De Blokfluiters. Recorder/flute ensemble performing 18th-century music. 11:30 a.m.
- “The Tryal of William Penn.” Historical play about the 1670 trial of William Penn (portrayed by Jim Whisman of New Castle) who was accused of unlawful assembly and inciting a mob by preaching to a group of Quakers on a London street. Issues of religious freedom and the rights of a jury are explored in this 30-minute performance. Audience members may participate in the trial as witnesses and as members of the jury. 12:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.
- “The Amazing Mrs. Penn.” Living-history performance by Jean Norvell as Hannah Penn at 2 p.m.

One of the oldest and most historic courthouses in the United States, the New Castle Court House (main section built in 1732) served as Delaware’s first court and state capitol. Here in 1776, New Castle, Kent and Sussex Counties declared their independence from Pennsylvania and England creating the Delaware State. The museum features tours and exhibits that illustrate Delaware’s unique boundaries, law and government and the Underground Railroad.
